GENERAL MILES ON GOOD ROADS

People of Rural Precincts Have Been Neglected.

GREAT NEED OF THE PRESENT

COMMANDER OF THE ARMY WARMLY RECEIVED.

St. Louis, April 28.—The second day's session of the National and Internawith a better attendance than vester-day. General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A. and president of the national high-way commission, made the principal address of the forenoon.

General Miles was received with great enthusiasm by the delegates. He spoke on the subject of "Military Roads and a National Highway," and said in part:

part;
"I know of no one element of civilization in our country that has been more neglected and yet is more susceptible of bestowing a great blessing thom our people than the improvement of our lines of communication and avenues of internal commerce."
